

REGULATIONS FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE ROMA BUSKERS FESTIVAL ARTIST CALL 2024

5-7 July 2024 – Tourist Port of Rome

The Roma Buskers Festival is a Street Artists Festival committed to promoting the X Municipality of Rome's territory, providing its audience with vibrant colors, music, and the joy of street performers. Through the Call for Artists, all performers can submit their applications for festival participation.

The Organization reserves the right to invite selected artists in addition to those applying through the regular Call for Artists.

REGULATIONS:

Selection: Submission of audio/video material is mandatory for artist selection. Incomplete or material-lacking applications will not be considered.

APPLICATION SUBMISSION

DEADLINE: 17 March 2024 Essential Information:

- Full name
- Stage name
- City of origin
- Email
- At least one link to a website, YouTube channel, or Instagram profile.

Participation and Schedule:

Selected artists confirm their availability and agree to adhere to the times and locations specified by the organization by participating in the application process.

Performances:

Invited artists will perform every evening (7-12 pm) following a rotation of assigned stations. The Organization reserves the right to determine the days and time slots for performances, both at different locations and on the central stage.

Other Provisions:

The organization may extend invitations to artists after the application deadline based on particular artistic merits. All information about accepted groups will be published on the festival website and social media channels. Selected artists will be reimbursed for travel expenses. Accommodation is the responsibility of the Organization. Food expenses will be covered by the Organization during festival evenings.

The Festival provides an opportunity for all selected street artists to perform, allowing everyone the chance to receive tips.

Throughout the festival, videos and photos will be captured and may be freely used on social and media channels associated with the Festival, event partners, and the Gruppo Matches Agency, which holds exclusive rights to the Roma Buskers Festival. Specific needs will be assessed individually, if necessary.
